Candidates are sought for one or more tenure track faculty appointments in the Department of Finance to be effective Fall Semester 2015.

ASSISTANT, ASSOCIATE, or FULL PROFESSOR OF FINANCE

Late stage doctoral students who expect to graduate by August 2015 or experienced doctorate holders in finance or a related discipline are sought for one or more tenure track appointments to be effective Fall 2015. Rank is open; highly accomplished individuals possessing a distinguished teaching and publication record may be considered for the rank of Associate or Full Professor. Candidates should have a demonstrated ability to conduct high-level research publishable in the premier academic finance journals. The Department also values a commitment to quality teaching at the undergraduate, MBA, MS, and PhD levels. Opportunities for conducting research in the Department are excellent.

Please direct all applications including a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, papers, and three letters of recommendations to Professor Mark Chen, Chair of the Recruiting Committee, at FinanceRecruiting@gsu.edu. Documents should be submitted electronically (preferably in pdf format). If necessary, materials may be mailed to: Recruiting Committee, Department of Finance, J. Mack Robinson College of Business, Georgia State University, Atlanta, Georgia 30303-3083. Preference may be given to applications received by December 5, 2014, but positions will remain open until suitable candidates are found. Positions are contingent on final budget approval by the University. Salary and teaching load are highly competitive. Georgia State University is an AA/EEO employer. An offer of employment will be conditional on background verification.
