

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE
J. MACK ROBINSON COLLEGE OF BUSINESS
GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY

Candidates are sought for one or more tenure track faculty appointments in the Department of Finance to be effective Fall Semester 2016.

ASSISTANT, ASSOCIATE, or FULL PROFESSOR OF FINANCE

Experienced doctorate holders in finance or a related discipline are sought for one or more tenure track appointments to be effective Fall 2016. Rank is open but we expect to hire at the rank of Associate or Full Professor. Applicants should possess a distinguished teaching and research record commensurate with their career stage, which includes publications in premier journals of financial economics. Expertise in asset pricing and/or investment management is particularly desirable. The Department also values a commitment to quality teaching at the undergraduate, MBA, MS, and PhD levels.

Please direct all applications including a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, papers, and three letters of recommendations to Professor Vikas Agarwal, Chair of the Recruiting Committee, at FinanceRecruiting@gsu.edu. Documents should be submitted electronically (preferably in pdf format). If necessary, materials may be mailed to: Recruiting Committee, Department of Finance, J. Mack Robinson College of Business, Georgia State University, Atlanta, Georgia 30303-3083. Preference may be given to applications received by December 1, 2015, but positions will remain open until suitable candidates are found. Positions are contingent on final budget approval by the University. Salary and teaching load are highly competitive. Georgia State University is an AA/EEO employer. An offer of employment will be conditional on background verification.
